

The 12th International Conference on High-Performance Ceramics

CICC-12

Notice on Postponement of 12th International Conference on High-Performance Ceramics (CICC-12)

October 29, 2021

Dear all,

In view of the epidemic situation in China recently, in order to reduce the risk of epidemic spread and protect the health and vital interests of all the delegates, we regret to inform that CICC-12 which was originally scheduled to be held in Suzhou from November 14 to 17, 2021 will be postponed to December 19 to 22.

Your kindly understanding and patience are highly appreciated. We do hope that you will maintain your interest, support and cooperation to make this event happen and a success.

We look forward to seeing you again in December!
